

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: November 4, 2014

CONTACT: Tamra Ingersoll, 623-930-2964, Public Information Office

ATTORNEY GENERAL HOUSING ASSISTANCE PROGRAM VISITS GLENDALE

Homeowners Recovering From Mortgage Crisis Invited to Attend

Glendale, Ariz. — On behalf of the Arizona Attorney General's Office, the City of Glendale invites residents to attend a free housing assistance and community resource event for homeowners on Saturday, Nov. 15.

The Help You Can Trust event, hosted by The Office of the Attorney General Tom Horne and Neighborhood Housing Services, is tailored to families still trying to recover from the devastating effects of the mortgage crisis.

Attendees will have the opportunity to meet one-on-one with a HUD-approved housing counselor to discuss loan refinance, modification, recover assistance and more. Other services available include:

- Legal services
- Relocation assistance
- Veterans aid
- Job training and employment assistance
- Scam awareness and prevention

The Help You Can Trust event will be held at the Glendale Adult Center at 5970 W Brown Street, on Saturday, Nov. 15. The event runs from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

The Attorney General and Neighborhood Housing Services advise attendees to bring their current mortgage statement, two months of current bank statements, prior tax returns, W-2s and two months of current income statements. Residents can make appointments online or by calling 1-844-777-3200. Walk-ins are also welcome.

Help You Can Trust provides direct assistance to families that may be burdened by an unaffordable mortgage, behind on a payment, or in danger of foreclosure. More information is available through the Arizona Attorney General's webpage.

####